Professional Summary

Social Media Manager helping founders and businesses turn quiet social media pages into pages people notice. Experienced in developing content strategies, researching audiences, planning and creating purposeful content, managing publishing, and building audience engagement across finance, fashion, and personal brands. I combine strategic planning with hands-on execution to help businesses build visibility, connect with their audiences, and work towards their social media goals. In a two-month finance brand role, I helped increase monthly impressions from 31.8K to 154.8K organically and gain 100+ followers. I also grew a personal brand page from zero to 100+ followers and 11,000+ organic views within three weeks.
